THE [Numb. 802.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, September 18, 1760.

From OWEN's WEEKLY CHRONICLE, July 12, 1760.

GERMANY.

THE Gazettes of the 5th and 8th Inſtant, contain a very ſatisfactory Account of what has occurred, ſince our laſt, in the ſeveral Parts of this Empire; where numerous Armies, headed by able Chiefs, are putting every Method, every Art, in Practice to circumvent, attack and ſlaughter each other. Fouquet's Affair in Sileſia, has turned out diſadvantageouſly; but we would adviſe our Readers not to ſuffer themſelves to be led to melancholy Reflections by the partial and exaggerated Relations given by the Bruſſels Gazette and other foreign Papers. This Misfortune is not irretrievable; Laudohn has nothing but ſtrongly fortified Places to attack, which may keep him employed, 'til his Pruſſian Majeſty is able to find him warmer Work, and to revenge himſelf for the late Misfortune. May all his Governors be as faithful and brave, in the Diſcharge of their Duty, as the gallant Governor of Glatz!

The Time ſeems approaching, when from all Quarters they may expect moſt important Intelligence, and we pray, ſincerely, that it may favour the Cauſe of Juſtice and of Liberty, and thereby compel the Tyrants and Oppreſſors to ſheathe the devouring Sword!

Hamburgh, June 20. Field Marſhal Soltikoff has reſumed the Command of the Ruſſian Army, which is advancing to Sileſia. The Empreſs, his Miſtreſs, has made him an additional Allowance of 2000 Rubles (450 l. Sterling) per Month for his Table. General Tottleben, who commands the Light Corps, hath been reinforced: This Officer lately made 200 Pruſſians Priſoners near Coſlin; and hath ſince routed two independent Pruſſian Battalions, diſperſing one Part and making Priſoners of another. His Troops have extended themſelves, and upon General Forcade's falling back to Stargard, took Poſſeſſion of Nauguard.

Brandenbourg, June 14. Our laſt Letters from Sileſia adviſe, that 10,000 Ruſſians have advanced to the Frontiers of that Dutchy. As Schweidnitz is out of Danger, by Laudohn's Retreat, Prince Henry is marched towards Zullichaw, to repel the Ruſſians.

General Platen has advanced within ſix Miles of Coſlin, and will ſoon be joined by a pretty numerous Body, under Major General Grabow, in order to recover that Town from the Ruſſians.

Leipſic, June 11. The Pruſſians continue to fortify this City with the utmoſt Diligence. They have raiſed another ſtrong Battery before the Hall Gate.

Poſden (in Poland) June 16. We have juſt received Advice, by a Ruſſian Courier, from the Borders of Brandenbourg, that Prince Henry, at the Head of 40,000 Men, is arrived in the Neighbourhood of Francfort on the Oder, and that more Troops were on their March to join them. We hear from Thorn, that the Ruſſians paſſed the Viſtula the 10th, and were traverſing Poland, and that General Ozernicheff, who commands their Vanguard, began his March the 10th, from Thorn for this Place.

Edinburgh, June 28. From Aberdeen we are informed, that the News of the Tranſports being arrived at Leith to take on board the Earl of Sutherland's Highland Battalion, gave the whole Corps the greateſt Pleaſure: Their Spirits were raiſed to the higheſt Pitch, on the Proſpect of ſpeedily having an Opportunity of ſignalizing themſelves againſt the Enemies of Britain.

A great Officer, lately diſmiſſed from all his Employments is ſoon expected here to reſide, having purchaſed an agreeable Villa, about five Miles ſouth of this City, which is preparing for his Reception.

Dublin, July 1. Laſt Friday died at her Lodgings in Trinity-Lane (ſuppoſed to have died for Want) Mrs. Mary Moore, in the 60th Year of her Age, who made Bonnets, &c. A little Time before ſhe expired, ſhe called for her Landlord, and requeſted that if ſhe died, he would give Directions for burying her with all her Cloaths on; which Requeſt cauſing ſome Suſpicion, as ſoon as ſhe was dead, ſhe was ſtript and in a Hollow Girdle tied round her Waiſt, the following Things were found: 102 Guineas, 20 Moidores, 16 Forty-ſhilling Pieces, 8 Shillings in Silver, ſome Halfpence, ſeveral Rings, and ſome Silver Spoons.

LONDON, June 28.

There is a Report in Town, that Admiral Boſcawen has demoliſhed ſome Fortifications on the French Coaſt.

It is ſaid the Reduction of the Remainder of the French Iſlands, in the Weſt-Indies, will be undertaken this Summer.

By the Biddeford Man of War, from Oporto, there is an Account, that two Engliſh Men of War in the Mediterranean had met with and engaged three French Men of War; one of the latter was taken, one ſunk, and one eſcaped. This Account, it is ſaid, was diſpatched from Cadiz to the Groyne, and from the Groyne to Oporto, in order to come by that Fleet, which was juſt ſailed, but was followed over the Bar with this Intelligence.

June 28. Yeſterday Morning the Purſer of the Earl of Holderneſſe, Captain Brooke, from Bencoolen and St. Helena, arrived at the Eaſt-India Houſe, with the News of the Arrival of that Ship at Spithead. The Hardwicke, late Sampſon, from Bengal, which was arrived at St. Helena before Captain Brooke ſailed, brought Advice, that the Dutch, upon a Miſunderſtanding with the Nabob, had joined the French, in order to make an Attack on Calcutta. A Sloop belonging to the Engliſh Company, coming down Bengal River, was taken by ſeven Dutch Ships of War (ſix Tranſports and a Commodore) who had 1000 European Troops on board, and 600 others. Theſe effected a Landing, but General Clive, having timely Notice of their Deſign, kept his Troops in Readineſs, and as ſoon as they got on Shore, attacked them, killed 600, and made the reſt Priſoners. The Company had but three Indiamen in the River, who were ordered to attack the ſeven Dutch; and after an Engagement of three Hours and an Half, five of the latter ſtruck, and the other two made the beſt of their Way down the River; but met with two other Indiamen coming up the River, to whom they ſtruck without firing a Gun. On board the Dutch Commodore's Ship they found Orders from the Governor of Batavia, not to leave an Engliſhman living in the Kingdom of Bengal, with a certain Reward for every Engliſhman's Head they brought in.

Notwithſtanding which, we are informed, that the Affair is made up; the Governor of Batavia has ſolemnly declared he was the Aggreſſor, and has given a Draught on the States General for 120,000 l. to make good the Damages done our Shipping, &c. The Dutch are likewiſe to be allowed but two Sloops to go up the River, to have but 100 Men each in the two Garriſons, in which they uſed to have 600, and humbly aſk Pardon. [Ought a Governor capable of giving the Orders mentioned above, be ſuffered to wear a Head!]

July 1. We hear an Expreſs is arrived from Major General Yorke, which brings Advice, that the States General had deſired that it might be ſignified to his Majeſty, that the Behaviour of the Governor of Batavia meets with their Diſapprobation; and was abſolutely without their Knowledge. [The Dutch in the Eaſt-Indies, for ſome Time paſt have had a Diſlike to the Engliſh, on Account of the Saltpetre Trade, and probably for other lucrative Reaſons if not worſe Motives. In order to gratify their ambitious Views, they entered into a Combination againſt Calcutta, which they thought they ſhould be able to conquer; and in this treacheous Scheme it appears, by their own Confeſſion, that they were to maſſacre every Engliſhman. The firſt Step taken was, to procure a Commiſſion from the Governor of Batavia, which we are told was granted. They then fitted out ſeveral large Ships well manned, and took on board 1000 Europeans, and 500 Seapoys, with all Sorts of Implements of War. The firſt Breach of Friendſhip was by taking an Engliſh trading Sloop. The next was an Attempt on Calcutta, in the River of Bengal, where they landed their Men in Hopes of taking the Place: But the Fort fired ſo briſkly that 500 of them were ſlain, and 500 more taken Priſoners. In this Action Col. Ford commanded, and not Col. Clive. Their next genteel Behaviour was in attacking our Eaſt-India Company's Ships, viz. the Hardwicke, Capt. Sampſon; the Duke of Dorſet, Capt. Bernard Forreſter; the Calcutta, Capt. George Wilſon; who all behaved ſo well, as to beat every one of them, and take five, tho' the Odds were ſo great. Two of the Dutch Veſſels that were making their Eſcape, were taken by the Royal George, Capt. George Beamiſh, and another Ship whoſe Name we have not heard. Neither Admiral Pocock, nor any Men of War were at this Sea-fight. The Dutch having now been diſappointed in their intended Villainy, it was thought proper to abridge them of ſome of their Power in the River Bengal; therefore the Engliſh Ships came before one of their Settlements, and ſoon took the Factory. No Doubt a proper Repriſal, and with a juſt Reſentment. But on confeſſing their iniquitous Schemes, and ſigning a proper Inſtrument, acknowledging the Rights of the Engliſh, their Ships, we hear, have been reſtored, as well as their Factory!]

July 3. They write from Paris, that though the Engliſh flatter themſelves they have annihilated the French Navy, the Project of making an Attempt on the Coaſts of Britain has been again brought on the Carpet; and, in Conſequence of Orders already iſſued, they are working with the utmoſt Diligence at Breſt, Toulon, and Dunkirk, in fitting out proper Veſſels to carry it into Execution.

Twenty independent Companies, containing 100 Men each, are ordered to be raiſed forthwith. Fifteen were raiſed ſome Months ago. No Sign this of a Peace being ſo near, as from our continual Succeſſes we had Reaſon to expect.

July 15. The Royal George Indiaman was chaced for ſix Days in her Paſſage by two French Men of War and a Sloop, from whom ſhe at laſt got clear by crowding all the Sail ſhe could in the Night. The Royal George is eſteemed the beſt Sailer in the Service of the Eaſt-India Company. Moſt of the General's Effects were in this Ship.

Major Brereton, who was killed in the late Engagement in the Eaſt-Indies, was Son of Col. Brereton, who has been forty Years in the Army, and now reſides at Windſor. This Gentleman had two Sons killed in the late War in Flanders.

By a Letter from Hanover we have Advice, that the Baggage belonging to the Scotch Greys, and Mordaunt's Dragoons, hath fallen into the Hands of the French.

The Ship the Livramento is arrived at Liſbon, from Rio de Janeiro, with five Millions of Cruſades. The Gold has been landed at Liſbon.

Yarmouth, July 9, Yeſterday were brought to our Priſon twelve Frenchmen, landed from the Wager Man of War. They were taken about a Week ſince, in an open Boat, near the North Foreland, by the Hind Man of War, and removed from thence to the Wager. The Boat was compleatly armed to make Prey of ſuch ſmall Veſſels as might fall in their Way.

Saliſbury, July 12. We are informed that the Camp at Winchеſter is extremely brilliant. Lord Effingham's, the 34th, is on the Right, and from thence on the Left lie the Berkſhire, Dorſetſhire, Bedford, Wiltſhire, and Gloceſterſhire, Regiments, who are for the moſt Part new-cloathed, in the Manner of the Regulars, and are all finely appointed Battalions. The Lines from Flank to Flank extend about one Mile. The Warwickſhire and Hertfordſhire, who mount the King's Guard over the French Priſoners at the Caſtle, are in Barracks within the City. Lord Effingham commands the Whole.

BOSTON, September 1.

The following is a true Account of the Misfortune which befel the Letter of Marque Brig Tyrrel, Arthur Coghlon Commander, given by Mr. Thomas Purnell, Chief Mate of ſaid Veſſel, and the only Perſon that was ſpared out of all the Crew, which conſiſted of Seventeen.

THE 29th of June they ſail'd from Sandy-Hook, and that Afternoon found the Veſſel made a ſmall Quantity of Water more than what ſhe uſually had, which cauſed a ſmall Spell at the Pump every Half Hour, ſo that they thought there was not any Danger, until Wedneſday the 2d of July, a little before eight o'Clock in the Forenoon: The Second Mate, who had then the Charge of the watch came and ſurprized Mr. Purnell as he was ſleeping in the Cabbin, by telling him the Veſſel was ſinking, &c. Mr. Purnell and the Captain going inſtantly upon Deck, and looking down into the Steerage ſaw ſhe was almoſt full: Some of the People informed Mr. Purnell they heard the Water run in, but before they had Time to examine the Leak, a Squall of Wind came on, which overſet her, the Boat being looſe on the Chocks floated, tho' Bottom upwards, but two of the People jumping into the Water from off the Veſſel's Side, righted her, and with a Bucket ſoon bail'd her, but the Veſſel by this Time was all under Water as far as her fore Chains; ſo that from the Time the Second Mate acquainted Mr. Purnell of the Affair, till they were all obliged to get into the Boat, was but a few Minutes, having no Proviſions, Inſtrument or Compaſs of any Kind, and then by their reckoning were 157 Leagues S. E. by E. from the Place they took their Departure. The firſt Night after they got into the Boat they had a great deal of Rain, with a heavy Gale at N. W. The next Morning it being calm, they made a Sail of Frocks and Trowſers, which did pretty well for nine Days; when the ſecond Mate and Carpenter died. A few Hours after they ſaw a Sloop becalm'd, which greatly encourag'd them, and they immediately got out their Oars, and came up with her ſo faſt, that in about three Hours they got within about Half a Mile of her; but at that Inſtant the Wind blew a ſmall Breeze, and the Sloop made all the Sail ſhe could and ſtood from them. After this the People died one or more every Day, 'till the 19th Day, when the Captain and a Boy dying left Mr. Purnell alone, who was taken up on the 25th Day following, by John Caſwell, Maſter of a fiſhing Schooner, having lived on no other Suſtenance than the Barnacles he got from off the Bottom of the Boat, and the Rockweed he catch'd along-ſide.

NEW-HAVEN, Auguſt 16.

A few Days ago, a Child belonging to Mr. Moſes Beecher of this Town, had a cutaneous Eruption, conſiderably reſembling the Chicken-Pox; the Puſtules became very protuberant, near as big as a Duck-ſhot, the Heads being dark colour'd, and the reſt yelloviſh. Upon opening ſome of the Puſtules, there appeared to be a great Number of Animals in them, which were ſcarce diſcernable by the naked Eye, but ſeen to be Animals by their ſwift Motion in crawling. One of them was brought to the College, and being viewed in the Microſcope, it appeared to be a perfect Tortoiſe, or Turtle, with upper and lower Shells, each divided into about ten Partitions, which were beautifully coloured, red, yellow, and white. The Head, Tail, and Legs, appeared very diſtinct; but the Eyes did not grow in the Head, but as it were out of the Shoulders, and ſtood upon two Pillars, very much reſembling thoſe of a Lobſter. The Eyes appeared like little Globes of Glaſs, were immoveable, and had no Eye-Lids: I judge that it was about a thouſandth Part ſo big as a Louſe. Thoſe Tortoiſes which cauſe the common Itch, are conſiderably in a different Shape.

THOMAS CLAP.

The 10th of May laſt as the Son of Thomas Ward, a Boy about 10 Years old, of the County of Bergen and Province of New-Jerſey, ſtood on a Rock fiſhing for Trout, in Long Pond River, near Ringwood, a large Wild Cat, ſuppoſed to be on the Limb of ſome Tree near the River, jumped on his Head, and he being much frightened, fell into into the River, and the Cat with him, when he was ſcratched and bit in ſo diſmal a Manner, that it was with the greateſt Difficulty the Lad could by any Means extricate himſelf out of her Claws; but at Length both being much fatigued, he ſeized his Antagoniſt by the Throat, dragged her on Shore, and there with Stones beat her Brains out. The Lad then went home, and the Doctor being ſent for, he had his Wounds dreſſed, which were all healed up in a few Weeks, and he ſeemed quite well, until the 20th of June in the Morning, when he was ſuddenly taken with Pains all over his Body, but complained moſt of the Places that had been bit, and was in ſuch an Agony that Day and Night, that next Morning he ran to a Neighbour's Houſe about 2 Miles Diſtance, and told them their Houſe and Barn, the Road and himſelf were all on Fire: He was ſent from thence home, and about Sun-ſet, on the 21ſt of June, he died quite mad, being juſt ſix Weeks from the Time he was bit by the Cat. After his Deceaſe, the Marks of the Wounds where he had been bit, turned very black.

NEW-PORT, Auguſt 26.

On Thurſday the 21ſt Inſtant, were executed, agreeable to the Sentence of the Court of Commiſſioners, Samuel Parkes and Benjamin Hawkins; the former about 28, and the latter ſomewhat above 22 Years of Age. They were permitted at their Requeſt, to walk to the Place of Execution, about a Mile diſtance from the Priſon, where they behaved with great Modeſty, and died with a Fortitude which diſcovered an uncommon Reſignation to Divine Providence, doubtleſs the happy Effects of the ſeaſonable and conſtant Advice and Admonition of the Clergy of the ſeveral Denominations, who agreeable to the Duties of their ſacred Functions, very charitably attended them during their Confinement, and at the Article of Death, took Leave of them with their fervent Prayers, in Preſence of Five or Six Thouſand Spectators. Their Bodies were depoſited at Goat Iſland, the burying Ground for Pirates, where on the 19th of July, in the Year 1729, Charles Harris, and 25 of his Crew, taken by the Greyhound of 20 Guns, Peter Solgard, Commander, and another Gang, about 22 Years ago, after ſuffering the juſt Demerits of their Crimes, were interr'd.

WILLIAMSBURG, September 5.

The Privateer fitted out at Norfolk to go in Queſt of Monſ. Nicolai, is returned without Succeſs.

The Wolfe, a ſmall Privateer belonging to Norfolk, has brought in a Spaniſh Veſſel, laden with French Wines.

At a Court of Vice-Admiralty on Tueſday laſt, the Brig Cheſter, a Flag of Truce belonging to Rhode-Iſland, from the Cape, was condemned as a legal Prize, but her Cargo acquitted.

NEW-YORK, September 4.

Tueſday laſt Colonel Preſcot, Aid de Camp to General Amherſt, arrived in Town, in 16 Days from the Army, which he left the 26th ult. being ſent Expreſs with Diſpatches for England; whereupon the Packet was immediately got ready, and the Mail cloſed Yeſterday; the Veſſel only waits for a Wind to proceed. We have been favoured with the following agreeable News, which may be depended on.

An Account of the Succeſs of His Majeſty's Army under General AMHERST, in the River St. Lawrence.

On the 10th of Auguſt the Army embarked at Oſwego, and proceeded acroſs the Lake into the River. The 16th in the Evening, off Oſwegatchie, the advanced Guard deſcried one of the Enemy's Veſſels, but Night coming on, prevented her being attacked that Night. At Break of Day on the 17th, ſhe was engaged by the Row Galleys, and by 7 o'Clock ſhe ſtruck: She was called the Uttawawa, mounting Ten 12 Pounders, and 100 Men, commanded by Monſieur De la Broqueri: We loſt in the Engagement only one Man, and another wounded; the Enemy had 13 killed, and as many wounded. This Day the Army moved down to Oſwegatchie, an Indian Settlement, with a Block-houſe Fort, but abandoned; the Enemy being reported to be ſtrongly fortified on an Iſland between four and five Miles lower down the River. The Shores and Iſlands were reconnoitred the enſuing Night by the Engineers, and on the 18th, a Part of the Army paſſed down on each Side of the Iſland; they were oppoſed by a ſmart Cannonading; but the Iſland was compleatly inveſted that Day. The four following Days were employed in raiſing Batteries; which together with the Shipping continued firing on the Fort, from the 23d in the Morning, to the 25th in the Afternoon, when the French beat a Parley. The Terms offered by the General were, that the Garriſon ſhould be Priſoners of War, and every Thing in it delivered up: Ten Minutes were allowed them to conſider whether or not they would accept of theſe Propoſals: They thought beſt to accept of them; and his Majeſty's Troops are now in Poſſeſſion of Fort Levi, on the Iſle Royale. Our Loſs on this Occaſion has been very inconſiderable; that of the Enemy (whoſe Garriſon conſiſted of about 300 Men) about 12 killed, and 40 wounded. Monſieur Pouchot, the ſame Gentleman that was laſt Year taken at Niagara, commanded them.

September 8.

Extract of Letter from the Camp near Iſle aux Noix, dated Auguſt 26, 1760.

"Our Commandant has not, as yet, compleated the Reduction of this Iſland, though our Batteries have continued playing upon the Enemy theſe three Days; but Yeſterday, by the Conduct of our Friend Colonel Darby, he, with a Detachment of two Companies of Grenadiers, two of Light Infantry, and Major Rogers with all his Rangers, took all the French Veſſels, ſave one, below the Iſland, and made the Commanders and the Sailors Captives, in Number 39; and now I have the Pleaſure to aſſure you they are manned with Engliſh Tars, 70 in Number, and the Engliſh Flag and Pendant is hoiſted on the Main-top-maſt Head of the largeſt Veſſel (a Schooner) commanded by Captain Grant, who was the chief Commodore in our Fleet; the other Veſſels taken, are a Sloop and a Row Galley, the latter mounting two Eighteen-pounders at the Head, another at the Stern, and full of Swivels; ſhe rows with 24 Oars. The Schooner and Sloop had only Four-pounders on board each of them, with a ſmall Quantity of Ammunition; but thoſe Deficiencies we ſhall ſoon make up. Colonel Darby ſtill remains encamped below the Iſland, on the Eaſt Shore, and the Captive Veſſels lay anchored near the Weſt Shore, ſo that no Reinforcement can come from St. John's, whether Men or Proviſions, to the Iſland; neither can the Enemy ſend any Boat from the Iſland to St. John's without paſſing the Veſſels, Darby's Guard Boat, and his four Twelve-pounders, which he takes with him where ever he goes:—In ſhort he merits the greateſt Honour by his Conduct Yeſterday, and is eſteemed in our Army of the greateſt Conſequence. The Boom which is carried from the Iſland to the Weſt Shore, and from the Iſland to the Eaſt Shore, is ſo ſtrong, we have not yet been able to cut it, to permit our Veſſels lying above the Iſland to paſs it; but we are preparing ſome Expedients to deſtroy their material Works; indeed the Enemy are extremely polite, ſeldom firing three Cannon Shot in the Day at us, though ſome of our Batteries are within Half Muſket Shot of the Iſland, and ſome leſs.

"The Depoſition of the Priſoners taken Yeſterday, is nearly as follows, for I had it from thoſe who were preſent.——They all agree with ſome Priſoners belonging to the Iſland (whom a Scout of our People took near Montreal a few Days ago, and brought into this Camp) with Regard to the Strength of the Garriſon, which conſiſts of 1000 Canadians, and near 600 regular Troops. Ammunition is very ſcarce, which Aſſertion we readily believe; Bread, they ſay, is plenty enough, but 4 Ounces of freſh Meat, without Salt, is the daily Allowance of a Soldier.—They ſay that General Amherſt is at Iſle Gallo, and that the Garriſon muſt ſhortly capitulate to him, and ſuch News was ſent to Montreal to Mr. Levy, not long ago. General Murray, they ſay, lies encamped at the Mouth of the River Sorell, on an Iſland, which he obliged Monſ. Boulimaire to abandon, leaving his Equipage, &c. for Mr. Murray.—They ſay the French are fortifying an Iſland oppoſite Montreal, where they intend to make a Stand.——Theſe Priſoners having been but 5 Days here, can give us no Account about the Boom, or what Methods we ſhall take to cut it away.——They ſay the whole Garriſon on the Iſland, lay upon their Arms every Night, behind their Breaſt Work, along Shore, upon the North End of the Iſland, below which Col. Darby is now encamped, the Veſſels lying oppoſite to him.——They ſay our Shot and Shells often take Place, and do great Execution among the Houſes, Works, &c. tho' heretofore few Men have been killed or wounded, the whole almoſt having retired behind the Fortreſs, and encamped on the North End of the Eaſt Shore, along which our Army lies encamped.—They ſay the 5 Indians that were upon the Iſland, went away to St. John's, upon the firſt Shot from our Batteries, and it was thoſe People who took the Provincial Scalp the other Morning; but as yet they have got no Priſoner from us; they all agree that the Country muſt capitulate, and the Natives do not care how ſoon. General Murray has diſarmed thoſe of them he came acroſs, but permitted them to go and gather in their Harveſt, which they ſay has turned out a very good one this Year, and ſufficient to maintain the Country 12 Months; they are in great Hopes, if we do not land upon the Iſland, we ſhall not be able to take it, and their Orders run, To STAND OUT TO THE LAST, for when we reduce the Fortification, the Entrance into the Country lies open: Nobody in Canada ever ſpeaks of Wine, two Quarts (their common Meaſure) of Brandy, ſells for 4 Guineas in Caſh, no Paper Currency being eſteemed of any Value.——They ſay ſome Officers of Diſtinction were killed laſt Night, by a Shell, and that the whole Garriſon are very much fatigued for want of Reſt, no Place of Safety, except the Magazine for Powder, being on the Iſland.——The Captain of the Schooner on being taken Priſoner by Col. Darby, wiſhed him Joy of the Country, ſuch Conſequence did they eſteem their Veſſels of. This Morning a Reinforcement of Cannon was ſent to Col. Darby, as alſo to compleat the Veſſels; what is to be done next, Time only can determine.—Our Loſs, during the Siege, as yet, is about 7 killed, and 30 wounded."

Thurſday Morning laſt, Magnus Rugeroh, Chief Mate of the Ship Alexander, of London, came to Town, from Sandy-Hook, where he left the ſaid Ship, having been chaſed from the Capes of Virginia by four French Privateers.

Saturday laſt the General Wall Packet, Capt. Lutwidge, ſailed from Sandy-Hook, with the Mail, for Falmouth.

PHILADELPHIA, September 11.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated July 11, 1760.

"As yet we know nothing of Certainty concerning a Peace. It is only in general conjectured that the Want of Money with all the Powers at War, muſt compel them to it in the enſuing Winter. But even this Reaſon is not perhaps ſolid. For my own Part, I think that for a Half per Cent. more, the Money wanted here may be raiſed as readily for next Year, as it was for this.——And perhaps the ſame may hold good with our Enemies."

The following is the Subſtance of a Letter from Crown-Point, dated September 1, 1760, viz.

"That that Day the agreeable News arrived there, in a French Whale-boat, manned by Rangers, of the French having abandoned the Iſle aux Noix, which they left in the Night of the 28th ult. and went to St. John's, leaving behind them about 200 Invalids, to keep the Place, who were made Priſoners by our People: That they found there 37 Pieces of Cannon, a large Quantity of Stores of all Sorts, and many Bullocks, but no ſalt Proviſions: That there were ſome of the Guns there, which we had at Oſwego: That General Murray had inveſted Montreal, and General Amherſt was within 20 Miles of it, when this Expreſs came off; ſo that it was hoped we ſhould ſoon hear of that Place being in the Hands of the Engliſh: That we had but nine Men killed at the Siege of the Iſle aux Noix; the Number of the Wounded not aſcertained: That a Schooner, taken from the French, was every Moment expected at Crown-Point: And that when the Expreſs left the Iſland, our Light Infantry, &c. were in Purſuit of the Enemy, in Battoes."

"We learn from New-York, that the Maſter of a Veſſel, arrived there from Georgia, reports that the Garriſon of Fort-Loudoun had capitulated: That one Article of the Capitulation was, that the Garriſon ſhould be ſafely conducted to Fort Prince-George, which was truly obſerved: And that there was a Likelihood of Peace with the Indians.

"By Letters from Pittſburgh, of the 28th ult. we learn that all was well there: That the Poſts of Preſque-Iſle and Venango were well ſecured, and well ſupplied: That the Indians were very ſincere and hearty in their Friendſhip, going conſtantly with our Convoys, and daily delivering up Priſoners, or bringing in Deſerters.

On Sunday Night laſt a Fire broke out in a Stable in Third-ſtreet, occaſioned by a Perſon going in with a lighted Candle; as there was a good Deal of Hay in it, that and another Stable adjoining, were ſoon conſumed; alſo an old wooden Houſe; and the Roof and Windows of a Brick Houſe were likewiſe deſtroyed; but as there was no Wind, and the Inhabitants, as uſual, being very active, it was prevented from ſpreading farther.

It appear'd on the Trial, that L. G. the Conſtable of the Hundred was at the Fray, who told them, Not to Swear; but they might Fight and be D-mn'd: Had this conſcientious Conſervator of the Peace, but done his Duty, he might poſſibly have ſav'd the Life of a good Subject, and prevented a poor Woman and five Children from ſuffering extreme Want.

At the ſame Court, John Harriſon, alias Stewart, from Frederick County, was found Guilty of Horſe-ſtealing, and ſentenced, Death.

Their Bodies are ſince taken up.

Laſt Week an unhappy Affair happen'd in Cæcil County; Two Men, whoſe Names were Caſſon and Dixon, pretended to enliſt George Laſhly, in order to frighten him, and he being but very weak in his Intellects, was much affrighted, and ran from them, and at length run into Suſquehanna River beyond his Depth, and was ſwimming about, when Dixon flung in a Stone which ſtruck him on the Side of the Head, and he ſunk and was Drowned. Caſſon is abſconded, but Dixon is in Priſon. Laſhly had a Wife, and ſeven Children, the eldeſt not eleven Years old.

The Ship Alexander, from New-York, which Place ſhe left laſt Thurſday, (the ſame Ship which is mentioned under the New-York Head in this Paper, to be beat back to Sandy-Hook) is juſt arrived in Patuxent, and a Gentleman from thence writes as follows:
